Flags for Benbecula, Eriskay & North Uist: Competition & Vote

Flags are an ancient art form that developed especially to clearly display allegiance and identity. They have subsequently become the premier medium for expressing social pride, indeed it is difficult to imagine events as diverse as sports matches, military parades or musical festivals without a wide range of flags being flown.

A flag for each island will be a free, public symbol for all to use that will:
- Raise recognition and awareness of the area nation-wide
- Express the pride in our local community
- Celebrate the heritage and culture of our corner of the country

The Competition
Individuals, schools and other groups are invited to create proposals in-line with the competition terms and conditions (below) and bearing in mind the Flag Institute design guidelines. The deadline for submissions is 7th June 2019.

An assessment panel - including representatives from the community councils, Lord Lieutenancy, local schools and community care as well as the Flag Institute and the Lyon Court - will then choose a final set of designs to be put to a public vote. The designs will all be drawn to the same standard.

The public vote will be held through a combination on physical, postal and online voting in July 2019. The winner will be announced once registered in the Lyon Court’s Public Register of All Arms and Bearings in Scotland and the Flag Institute’s UK Flag Registry.

Brief Background of Benbecula, Eriskay & North Uist

Benbecula
Benbecula lies at the heart of the Uist group of islands, between North and South Uist. Now linked to its neighbours by causeways, historically the island’s beaches allowed crossings to be made and is the likely to be the origin for the “- of the fords” meaning of the name Benbecula.

There are a number of theories as to the rest of the meaning of the name Benbecula. One suggests it may come from a ‘pennyland’ land division used for taxation, whilst another theory proposes it means ‘hill’, though the island is largely flat it does have once hill – Rueval, also known as the ‘Hill of Miracles’.

Poetically Benbecula is known as ‘The Dark Isle’ derived from the famous song about returning to the island. Another famous song, the ‘Skye Boat Song’ records the famous flight of Bonnie Prince Charlie to Skye from Benbecula. As well as music and history Benbecula is home to the legend of a mermaid!

Eriskay
Eriskay has a connection with the Young Pretender for it was on the beautiful white strand at ‘Coilleag a Phrionnsa’ that Bonnie Prince Charlie first set foot on Scottish soil on July 23rd 1745 before raising his army for the abortive Jacobite rebellion which ended so disastrously at the Battle of Culloden.

When the Prince stepped ashore on Eriskay he scattered some seeds very close to shore. The rare flowers of Pink Convolvulus (a type of sea bindweed) grow in that same area every July to this day. It has been noted that when anyone tries to plant these seeds/flowers in another location they never flourish.

Eriskay is also famous for the iconic Eriskay Pony who was no doubt put to work recovering the precious cargo of Whisky from the SS Politician when she ran aground just off the Island in 1941. This famous incident was the inspiration for the Ealing film "Whisky Galore"!

North Uist
Throughout much history the island was an important focus for the dynastic contests of the MacDonalds of Clanranald, particularly between the local MacGorrie and MacMurchie families.

The island has legends of buried treasure. One marked by marram grass near Loch Grogary and the other around Trinity Temple. Trinity Temple, as a monastery and college, was a major centre of learning sometimes called Scotland’s first university.

As its name suggests North Uist is the largest northernmost island in the Uists. It is noted for its peat bogs and lochs. Indeed it has been estimated that more than half of its surface area is covered by water!
Flag Design Guidelines

Below are some basic principles of flag design. Further information can be found in the Flag Institute Guiding Principles of Flag Design, available as a free download at: http://www.flaginstitute.org/wp/product/guiding-principles-flag-design/

Keep it Simple
The flag should be simple enough that a child can draw it from memory; else it will be too hard for people remember and reproduce.

Use Meaningful Symbolism
The flag’s elements, colours, or patterns should relate to what it will represent. The flag should symbolise the area as a whole rather than any other entities which are better served by having their own flags (i.e. try not to symbolise specific towns or the country)

Try to Use Two to Three Basic Colours
Limit the number of colours on the flag to three, which contrast well and come from the standard colour set: red, orange, yellow, green, light blue, dark blue, purple, black and white. Dark and light colours will contrast well against each other, in particular yellow or white will work well on any of the other colours and vice versa.

No Lettering or Seals
Avoid the use of writing of any kind or an organisation’s badge, seal or coat of arms. Writing and other intricate detail is difficult to see at a distance and will likely be unrecognisable when the flag is flying in the wind. It is better to use elements from an appropriate coat of arms as symbols on the flag.

Be Distinctive
Avoid duplicating other flags, if designs look too similar then the flags could be mis-identified.

How Will it Fly in the Wind?
Remember, the design must be distinctive when flying on a high pole in a strong wind, and when hanging in windless conditions too. Also remember that it will almost always have ripples caused by the wind.
Helpful Tips for Flag Design

Flag design expert, Philip Tibbetts, has much experience and working with local schools and communities. Here are his tips to help inspire budding designers.

Getting Started
When looking to design a flag for a town or area begin by looking at a number of sources for inspiration to find something that is important and unique. Such elements include:

- Meaning of the areas name
- Legends and folklore
- Traditional emblems and colours
- Local people, achievements and industries

There are many traditional flag symbols that could be adapted to represent aspects of Sutherland such as the stars or wildcats.

Examples of Best Practice
New symbols or adaptations of old symbols can be very powerful. For example:

Sutherland
The Sutherland uses colours from the former council coat of arms. The Nordic Cross and Saltire shapes represent that the county was the historic mainland border between Scotland and the Vikings. The golden sun represents the rising and setting sun of Sutherland’s two coasts as well as the origins of its name as ‘South Land’ as the sun is highest in the south.

Tiree
The island’s sobriquet as the ‘Land of Barley’ is referenced by the ears of barley, which also serve to recall the barley sheaf emblem used in the council’s arms. Here they are arranged into a circular pattern to symbolise the rays of the sun as Tiree is famed for the highest amount of sunshine in Britain.
